

The Ffestiniog Railway: Celebrating 150 Years of Steam

By John Stretton

Silver Link Publishing Ltd. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, The Ffestiniog Railway: Celebrating 150 Years of Steam, John Stretton, Having survived for over two decades as a horse drawn operation, shipping slate downhill between Blaenau Ffestiniog and Portmadoc and the empties back up the line, the Ffestiniog Railway was forced by constantly increasing loads and weight to switch to steam locomotives. Four 0-4-0STs - Princess, Prince, Welsh Pony and Little Wonder - were received from George England Co. in 1863 and immediately made their presences felt, producing a step change in the railway's fortunes. This continued over the next decade, leading to orders for more powerful motive power, with delivery of a further 0-4-0ST - Palmerston - and the first of what would become the iconic emblem of the railway, Robert Fairlie's patent double-engines. As has been asserted on several occasions, the Festiniog have always been at the forefront of forward thinking and innovation and this has continued through to the present day. 2013 sees the celebration of 150 years of steam and this book, a third volume in Nostalgia Collection's Past & Present series, features a focus on the locomotive fleet, as well as showing a number of...
