FOR ALL PERSONS OF QUALITY AND OTHERS. famous artist John Emanuel Schoitz, who, to the great surprise and satisfaction of all spectators, is ready to do the following wonderful performances; the like before never seen in this kingdom. He will heat a bar of iron red hot, and thrust it into a barrel of gunpowder before all the company, and yet it shall not take fire. He lets any gentleman charge a blunderbuss with the same gunpowder, and twelve leaden bullets, which blunderbuss the said artist discharges full in the face of the said company, without the least hurt, the bullets sticking in the wall behind them. He takes any gentlemans own sword, and runs it through the said gentlemans body, so that the point appears bloody at the back to all the spectators; then he takes out the sword, wipes it clean, and returns it to the owner, who receives no manner of hurt. He He takes a pot of scalding oil, and throws it by greM ladlefuls directly at the ladies, without spoiling their clothes or burning their skins. He takes any person of qualitys child from two years old to six, and lets the childs own father or mother take a pike in their hands; then the artist takes the child in his arms, and. tosses it upon the point of the pike, where it sticks to the great satisfaction of all spectators; and is then...
